From your president...

At Christmas time...and all the time

And Mary said, "Yes, I see it all new: I am the Lord's maid, ready to serve. Let it be with me just as you say."
[Luke 1:38]

Simple, straightforward words. Spoken with confidence drawn beyond fear by God's Spirit. Offering the gift of self ... in peaceful surrender ... with only a hint as to the outcome ... that God's vision might come alive in her very being.

This is the dynamic heart of Christmas season for Christians. This dynamic is the heart of all faiths. The Eternal One of Life and Love reaching out of the innermost depths of God's caring, serving love for the well-being of all God's people. God calling forth sacrificial, serving love which only God's Spirit is able to summons from within us. It is through us that God chooses to uplift every creature.

Mary's response to God's invitation emerges from her growth in grasping the "way" of God's involvement within life. The Spirit shares. Gives. Reveals. Clarifies. Instructs. The Spirit invites. Attracts. Draws forth. Elicits. Empowers. Sustains. Mary's growth in the Spirit enables her to move beyond resistance to participation.

Often times we wish to convince others of the grace that is revealed from the innermost essence of our faith, whatever that faith may be. We may try either of two paths. We may deliberately seek every occasion to make our faith the topic of our conversations, hoping to persuade family, friends and neighbors of its preciousness for their lives. But the urge to persuade may well flow from an uncertain, insecure spirit within us. Seeking to "make" others believe as we do may actually do a great disservice to our faith by calling forth resistance rather than trust.

I believe that what is true for Mary is also true for us ... and others.

The Spirit of the Source of Love and Life makes itself convincingly clear, not through persuasive talk, but through its fruits. Love. Joy. Peace. Patience. Kindness. Goodness. Trustfulness. Gentleness. And, would you believe, self-control. These fruits convey their own unmistakable message ... and invite others to engage their source.

In this season [as in all seasons] may we ask: "How can I mature in the Spirit of the Eternal? What am I doing daily to enhance that growth? What will make it possible for me to say with Mary, "Yes, I see it now: I am the Lord's servant ... a channel through whom the spirit wishes to express its fruits of reconciliation, renewal and unity. Let it be with me just as you say."

Shalom, Salaam, Santi, the Peace that passes all understanding. Bob Long

Of Faith...

“I believe in the fundamental truth of all great religions of the world. I believe they are all God-given and I believe that they were necessary for the people to whom these religions were revealed. And I believe that if only we could all of us read the scriptures of the differing faiths from the standpoint of the followers of these faiths, we should find that they were at the bottom all one and were all helpful to one another.”
Mahatma Gandhi

“Faith is taking the first step even when you don't see the whole staircase.” Martin Luther King, Jr.

“Be faithful in small things because it is in them that your strength lies.” Mother Teresa

“Doubt is a pain too lonely to know that faith is his twin brother.” Khalil Gibran

“As your faith is strengthened you will find that there is no longer the need to have a sense of control, that things will flow as they will, and that you will flow with them, to your great delight and benefit.” Emmanuel Teney

“Faith is to believe what you do not see; the reward of this faith is to see what you believe.”
St. Augustine

“Faith is the strength by which a shattered world shall emerge into the light.” Helen Keller

“I have not lost faith in God. I have moments of anger and protest. Sometimes I've been closer to him for that reason.” Elie Wiesel

“Faith means belief in something concerning which doubt is theoretically possible.” William James

“The faith that stands on authority is not faith.” Ralph Waldo Emerson

“It may be a procession of faithful failures that enriches the soil of godly success. Faithful actions are not religious acts. They are not even necessary actions undertaken by people of faith. Faithful actions, whether they are marked by success or they end in failure, are actions that are compelled by goodness.” Desmond Tutu
